

Hymn

Ludwig van Beethoven

arr.: Jago Moons

Lyrics: Judith Vindevogel

transl.: Jonathan Reeder

Allegro assai.

4

Let us dream our wil-dest dreams and grant us all our fan - ta-sies.

10

Let the world be washed in sun-beams, glow-ing with our me - lo-dies. Why be fright-ened, why should we trem-ble, for what is cold, un - kind and wrong. If ____ we let our love as-sem-ble, we will ne-ver be a-lone. Love gives co-lor to our cho-rus, love streams through-out all that lives. Rich are they who loved be - fore us, no - ble he who true love gives. E - ven the most e - vil__ vil - lain, yields to__ love in breadth and length. Song - birds sing of love so thril-ling, love gives hu-mankind its strenght. E - ven the most e - vil__ vil - lain, yields to__ love in breadth and length. Song - birds sing of love so thril-ling, love gives hu - man - kind its strenght.

15

20

4

29

32

36

41

45

49

4

54

Let us dream our wil-dest dreams and grant us all our fan - ta - sies. Let the world be washed in sun - beams, glow - ing with our me - lo - dies.

64

70

Why be fright - ened, why should we trem - ble, for what is cold, un - kind and wrong. If _____ we let our love as - sem - ble, we will ne - ver be _____ a - lone.

75

81